Anambra All Stars get US invitation

The Anambra All Stars Football Club has been invited to participate in the 3rd Lawrence W. Friscoli Tournament billed for Massachusetts in USA.

In a letter of invitation sent by Cambridge FC of Massachusetts to the Anambra State club, the competition slated for August 18 and 19, 2012 is meant for players who are above the age of 40.

Already, the American Embassy in Nigeria has given the 36-man team led by the club's President, Patrick Okofor, an appointment to appear for visa interviews at the Embassy's office on Lobito Crescent, Wuse, Abuja.

It is interesting to note that the Anambra All Stars FC was the only African club to be invited for the tournament by the organisers.

Okocha, Fanny, congratulate Dr Uba on FUT0 award

By MADUABUCHI KALU

Former Super Eagles' captain, Austin Jay Jay Okocha and former Nigeria Football Association (NFA) Secretary General, Fanny Amun have congratulated the Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer of Capital Oil and Gas Limited, Dr Ifeanyi Uba, for the recent 'Doctorate Degree (Honoris Causa)' bestowed on him by the prestigious Federal University of Science and Technology Owerri (FUTO).

The Award is in recognition of his contributions in the development of the Oil and Gas sector of the economy and his empowerment of thousands of Nigerian youths through job creation and his philanthropy over the years.

According to Okocha: "I want to congratulate my very good friend and brother, Dr Ifeanyi Uba, for the recent honour bestowed on him by the prestigious Federal University of Science and Technology (FUTO) Owerri. It is an honour well deserved.

"As a matter of fact, considering the contributions of Dr Uba to the development of the Nigerian society, I think that this honour cannot come at a better time.

"I have no doubt that more honours and awards are still coming his way because a golden fish has no hiding place," Okocha said.

Interclube retains African championship

By Amaefule Manina

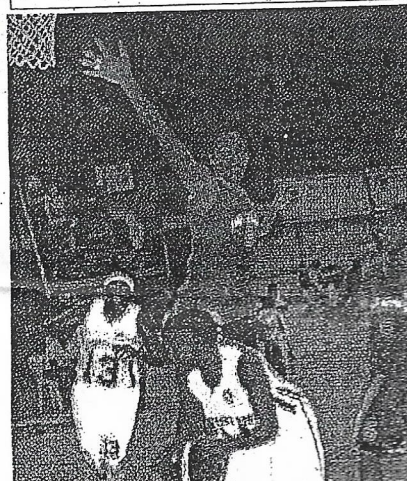

Defending champions of the Fiba Africa champions club for women, Interclube of Angola on Saturday night retained her dominance of women basketball by defeating First Bank basketball club of Lagos in the finals of the 17th edition of the championship by 81 - 55 points.

The Angolians left no one in doubt about their intentions of retaining the trophy as they maintained a comfortable lead throughout the game to dominate the First Bank Elephant girls who drew first blood when the game tipped off.

Nigeria's other representative, the First Deepwater basketball club of Lagos, finished the championship in third place beating Angolan side Maculosso by 66 - 37 points.

Chairman of hosting club of the final round of the 17th FIBA Africa Champions Club for Women, Babatunde Babalola of First Deepwater basketball club of Nigeria expressed happiness at the success of the championship.

The Oil & Gas mogul told our correspondent that the competition is a real test of Africa women basketball despite the low turnout of teams for this year's edition holding in Nigeria commercial nerve centre, Lagos.
